MISCELLANEOUS.

A DESCRIPTION OF DIFFERENT CHURCH FESTIVALS.

Jan. 1st CIRCUMCISION.—This feast, called by some the Octave of Christmas, being the eighth day after the birth of Christ, and the day on which he was circumcised, is celebrated by the Episcopal church to commemorate the active obedience of Jesus Christ in fulfilling all righteousness, which is a branch of the great cause of our redemption, and abrogates the severe injunctions of the Mosaic establishment, placing us under the grace of the Gospel.

6th. EPIPHANY.—The word signifies to manifest or declare. It is the day on which the wise men of the east (Gentiles) came to worship the infant Jesus, when Christ was manifested unto them. The design of the Church in celebrating this festival is to show their gratitude to God for manifesting the Gospel to the Gentiles, as well as to the Jews, his peculiar people.

Feb. 2d. PURIFICATION OF CANDELMAS.—forty days after Christmas. It was the Mosaic law, that every mother should separate herself from the congregation 40 days after the birth of a son: and that every first born should be holy to the Lord, to attend on the service of the temple or tabernacle. This Holiday is kept in memory of the presentation of Christ in the temple.

SEPTUAGESIMA. (70th)—SEXAGESIMA, (60th)—QUINQUAGESIMA, (50th)—Feb. 19, 26, and March 4. From the Sunday before Lent to Easter, inclusive, is 50 days, hence that Sunday is termed Quinquagesima; and the two Sundays before, from the next two round numbers, Sexagesima and Septuagesima. The Church thus early looks forward to Easter the queen of festivals, and celebrates these Sundays to prepare the minds of its members for the solemn season of Lent.

March. 5. SHROVE TUESDAY.—It is the day before the term of Lent commences. 'To shrove' means 'to confess.' This fast was appointed by the Church for shriving, i. e. confessing sins, previous to, and preparatory for the solemn season of Lent.

7. ASH WEDNESDAY, the first day of Lent. It is so called because the primitive Christians kneeled in ashes and sprinkled ashes on their heads when they were penitent and humble. Lent means 'the spring.' It is a solemn time of bu-miliation, prayer and fasting. The season of lent is the 40 days before Easter, exclusive of Sundays, which are never to be observed as fasts.

25. ANNUNCIATION DAY, or LADY DAY. This festival is appointed by the Church in commemoration of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and in celebration of the message of the angel on that day, announcing to her that she should be the mother of our Blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

April. 15. PALM SUNDAY, the Sunday before Easter.—This festival is called Palm Sunday because the people strewed palm bows in our Saviour's way, on his entry into Jerusalem, the last Sunday of his human life.

20. GOOD FRIDAY.—So called from the infinite good effected by the event it celebrates. It is the day on which the Redeemer died for our sins.

22. EASTER DAY—is always the first Sunday after the first full moon that follows the vernal equinox, or 21st of March. It is the day on which our Saviour rose from the dead. Easter means 'to rise'. The week between Palm Sunday and Easter, the last week of Lent, is called the Great week, and the Holy week, because of the great and holy events performed in it.

29. LOW SUNDAY.—The ancients on the first Sunday after Easter repeated some of the solemnities of that festival: hence this Sunday took the name of Low Sunday, being celebrated as a feast, but of a lower degree than Easter itself.

May 27. ROGATION SUNDAY, the Sunday before Ascension day. The Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, before Ascension Day, are also called Rogation days. They were appointed in the fifth century for fasting and supplication. Rogation means supplication.

31. ASCENSION DAY, or Holy Thursday, forty days after Easter, is the day on which Christ, after his resurrection, ascended into Heaven.

June 10. WHIT-SUNDAY, or White-Sunday, is ten days after Holy Thursday. It is the day on which the Holy Ghost descended on the Holy Apostles; and was appointed a particular time for baptism. It was named White Sunday because the persons who appeared in church to be baptized wore white garments, and on account of the white or shining appearance in the descent of the Holy Ghost upon the Apostles. This festival is sometimes called the Pentecost, as it is 50 days from Easter.

17. TRINITY day. It is the bringing the church to begin her services, follows the course measure her Christ being guided, follow her year with fore, doth arise carnation, are the church, and computed. The other great celebrated event was not considered for that which though, show lar day's meditation to the honour celebrating the clude those so to the honour in celebrating

EMBER DAY after the first Cross, and after days, are church. On prayer and faith choice and command ember fast."

17. TRINITY SUNDAY is the next Sunday after Whit-Sunday. It is the last festival in the year of the church for celebrating the Trinity in Unity; for it is the computation of the church to begin her year and to renew the annual course of her services, with the time of Advent. For she neither follows the course of the sun nor moon, to number her days and measure her seasons according to their revolutions; but Jesus Christ being to her as the only sun of light whereby she is guided, following his course alone, she begins, and counts on her year with him. When this Sun of Righteousness, therefore, doth arise, that is, when his advent, his coming, and incarnation, are first propounded to us, then begins the year of the church, and from thence are all her other days and times computed. The feast of Trinity Sunday is a later date than the other great festivals. As the praises of the Trinity were celebrated every day in the doxologies, hymns and creeds, it was not considered necessary to set apart one particular day for that which was done on each; but afterwards, the church thought should be the more solemn subject of one particular day's meditation: and the foregoing festivals being devoted to the honour of each several person by himself, thereby celebrating the Unity in Trinity, it was thought proper to conclude those solemnities by adding to them one festival more, to the honour and glory of the whole Trinity together, thereby celebrating the Trinity in Unity.

Aug. 15. ASSUMPTION—a holiday observed by the Roman Church, in honour of the miraculous ascent of the Virgin Mary, body and soul, into heaven. The festival was called assumption because the Virgin assumed a celestial appearance in her ascention.

Sept. 14. HOLY CROSS; the day on which Christ enjoined on his disciples self-denial and humility, and required them to leave their friends and possessions, and take up their cross, and follow him.

EMBER DAYS are the Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday after the first Tuesday in Lent, after Whit-Sunday, after Holy Cross, and after St. Lucy's day. The Sundays following ember days, are the stated times of ordination in the Episcopal church. On ember days the members of the church, with prayer and fasting, invoke the Divine aid and blessing on the choice and commission of ministers of the Gospel. The word ember has its origin from a Latin word signifying "to fast."

20. St. Michael's and all angels's day. This festival is celebrated, by the church, in thanksgiving to God, for the benefits we receive by the ministry of the holy angels. As this Michael is recorded in scripture as an angel of power and dignity, presiding and watching over the church of God with a particular vigilance and application, and triumphing over the devil, it therefore bears his name.

Nov. 1. ALL SAINTS' DAY. a festival observed in commemoration of the holy Apostles, martyrs, and other eminent departed saints.

2. ALL SOULS, a festival observed for the purpose of celebrating the memory of all the faithful deceased.

Dec. 2. ADVENT SUNDAY. The four Sundays and weeks before Christmas, are called advent, which signifies 'coming.' These Sundays are assigned to prepare us for celebrating with becoming faith, seriousness, and devotion, the advent or coming of Christ in the flesh, and to direct our views to that second advent, when he will come to judge those to whom he before came to offer his salvation.

The Church begins her year on the first Sunday in Advent, and from this time renews her annual festivals and her feasts,

Dec. 25. CHRISTMAS. This is the day devoted to the celebration of the birth of our Blessed Saviour, who left the glory of his Father, and for us and our salvation took upon him our nature.

The practice of embellishing and ornamenting churches at this great festival is very ancient. The primitive believers, in the great advent of our Saviour, expected he would be born at the winter solstice, when evergreens flourish.—

"The glory of Lebanon (the cedar) shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box tree together, beautify the place of my sanctuary." Isa. ix. 13. Many similar passages occur in the Old Testament.

28. HOLY INNOCENTS.—These were the infants slain by Herod to procure the death of the infant Jesus. The celebration of the martyrdom of these innocents was very ancient. The festivals in honour of the memory of them, and of St. John the Evangelist, were appointed immediately after Christmas, to intimate that none are thought fitter attendants on Christ's nativity, than those blessed martyrs who lost their temporal lives for him.
